OVERVIEW

The Building Wealth Through Business one day seminar is for business owners and entrepreneurs who want to create substantial wealth from their business. Strategies taught are used by high net worth entrepreneurs and large private and public companies to build substantial asset value.

These strategies are proven in the marketplace and form the basis of investment banking transactions. In fact this is how many Rich List members make their money - by raising capital, floating or selling it for a very high price.

So why can't every business owner do this? Mostly because the education is not available. The Building Wealth Through Business seminar unlocks these strategies for SME's. This information is directly relevant to any business regardless of size or industry. This information packed event is must see for any business owner or entrepreneur.
